

Oct 3, 2007 1:24 pm US/Pacific

Mold Closes Part Of Sacramento High-Rise

(AP) SACRAMENTO State tax workers have been banned from top floors of a downtown Sacramento high-rise after a variety of molds were found growing in the walls last week. The agency said the mold was found by painting crews. But a lawyer noted the agency's announcement came less than two weeks after he filed a claim alleging the building has been making dozens of state workers sick.