My name is Caryn Lai and I am a parent and homeowner in Oakland, California. I support Proposition 15 because I believe it will provide much-needed funding for public education, including K-12 and community colleges, and for community necessities such as affordable housing to address our homelessness crisis. These issues are important to me as a parent who has felt the need to take on a fundraising role at my child's school in order to support the various programs. Proposition 15 would reclaim $12 billion every year for our schools and local services by closing corporate property tax loopholes -- all while protecting homeowners and renters, small businesses, and agriculture. Please support Prop 15. Sincerely, Caryn Lai
