My name is Kitt Saginor. As a community college librarian for 25 years I have worked with students in every discipline and program and have seen the erosion of educational opportunity resulting from Prop 13. Because education is a public good - contributing to the overall health, happiness and prosperity of the state, the effect of Prop 13 has been to impoverish all of us. Prop 13 was sold to the voters as a protection for individuals, particularly low income seniors, but it has allowed wealthy corporations to evade civic responsibility. As the bumper sticker says, "If you think education is expensive, try ignorance." Well, now we have tried ignorance. It is too costly to continue. Please support Prop 15.
