Comment:

It seems unlawful that the Proposition 19 as it appeared on the ballot was so misleading! Is there any way this can be litigated for misconduct, misrepresentation and fraud to the people? By calling it: The Home Protection for Seniors, Severely Disabled, Families, and Victims of Wildfires or Natural Disasters Act the voters misunderstood that the act was giving them a break AND raising the taxes on all other family home transfers. Why didn't they make it clear that most transfers to a child would cause a higher tax assessment? Most homes in the Bay Area are well over 1 million dollars. Regionally this is an enormous injustice, just another money grab by California Lawmakers to line their pockets. Even the experts didn't seem to know!
