Subject: Board Meeting, October 21, 2025, Property Tax Deputy Director's Report
Assessment Practices Survey Quarterly Report

Introduction

The State Board of Equalization (BOE) conducts audits of the County Assessors to promote uniformity, fairness, equity, and integrity in the property tax assessment system. The BOE audits ensure property value assessments follow property tax law and certify the property tax assessment rolls meet the requirements for assessment quality. The final audit survey reports include, when applicable, BOE staff's audit findings and recommendations for improvements, average assessment ratios, sum of the absolute differences between BOE's appraisals and the County's values, statistical data, and the County Assessor's response to the BOE's findings.

Publications

The following final audit survey reports were published during the third quarter of 2025.

- Kern County Supplemental Assessment Practices Survey Report
- Alpine County Assessment Practices Survey Report

Recently published reports can be found on the BOE website at
