TO COUNTY ASSESSORS:

APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF,
COUNTY-ASSESSED PROPERTIES DIVISION

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Patricia Lumsden to the position of Chief, County-Assessed Properties Division, which was effective April 23, 2020.

Ms. Lumsden has over 30 years of property tax experience. She began her career at the State Board of Equalization (BOE) in 2008 as an associate property appraiser for the Assessment Practices Survey Section, working as part of a survey crew. In 2011, she was promoted to a senior specialist property appraiser, performing quality control for the survey reports created by the Assessment Practices Survey Section. In 2014, Ms. Lumsden was promoted to a supervising property appraiser for the Welfare Exemption Section. She later transferred to the Assessment Services and Training Unit where she worked as a supervising property appraiser and recently promoted to a principal property appraiser.

Prior to joining the BOE, Ms. Lumsden worked at the Placer County Assessor's Office from 1989 to 2007 as a transfer analyst and as an appraiser, and she also worked for a private commercial appraising firm as a certified general appraiser from 2007 to 2008. Ms. Lumsden is an advanced certified property appraiser and has a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Finance, from the California State University, Sacramento.

Please join me in congratulating Ms. Lumsden on her appointment.

Sincerely,

/s/ David Yeung
